Try To Remember . . .

As a member of the present generation, we live for the moment—we strive for the future—yet, we are what we are because of the past. At the moment, many of us are not very aware of what, who, or why we are. We are struggling to discover our destination. We base our beliefs and actions on what we have learned in the past.

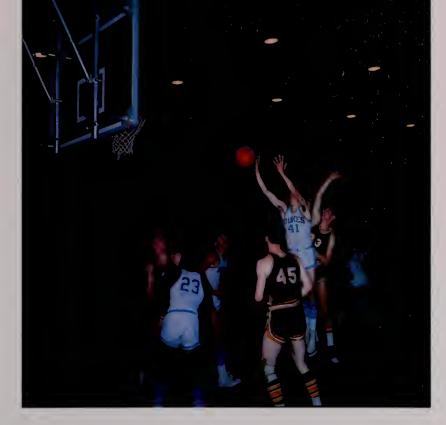

At D.H.S. we have experienced gay prisms of delight, gray shadows of sadness; intellectual stimulation, team spirit; discouraging defeat, resounding victory; frivolous youth, and finally serious maturity.

It has been the tradition of the Maple Leaves for the past twenty-five years to picture the life at Dublin High School. We hope that this, the Silver Anniversary Edition of the Maple Leaves, will help you in the years to come as you "TRY TO REMEMBER."

. . . That Kind Of September.

Deep In December . . .

And Follow . . . Follow . . . Follow .

Our Hearts Were So Tender . . .

Mr. Garland Wygal

Dedication

A high school is the lengthened reflections of many individuals who work apart, and yet, together, each enduring the years, leaving the greatness of their influence in the hearts of all. Some are more durable, thus standing as a guidepost, remembered by all who possess an impression of their influence.

We, the Dublin High School student body, wish to recognize one who has served with dedicated loyalty to our school and student body. With sincerity of purpose, and enduring faith is the significant role of education in guiding our youth to maturity with the ability to utilize their potential to the best of their advantage and to that of society.

To one who has helped many to attain vocational, intellectual and aesthetic enjoyment in life... To one who commands respect and admiration of the colleagues and students with whom he works... To one who respects the lasting traditions and philosophy on which Dublin High School was founded... For the years of service which have enriched the lives of so many students, we will remember him as one such reflected figure...

First row—K. Brown, P. Bowling, C. Mady, S. Johnston, Second row—M. Wright, P. Fowler, M. Hager, B. Johnston, J. Harris, L. Bowman, J. Dehart, D. DeVilbiss, Third row—N. Walker, C. Maupin, B. Combs, M. Stanley, J. Schultz, N. DeVilbiss, B. Stanley, S. Ingle, P.

Shupe, D. Trail, R. Bowman, Fourth row—D. Trammell, R. Estes, P. Moyer, C. Marshall, D. Bowling, P. Shultz, C. Greer, P. Phillips, R. Reed, S. Anderson, M. Sloop, J. King, D. McClure, Fifth row—D. Stanley, G. Farmer, R. Hines, S. Hester, F. Stanley, D. Young, J. Smith.

To remember all the joys, anticipations, chills, and sweats of the 84 Duke bandsmen would be an impossible task. There are, however, happenings that will be long remembered.

The band, its several new members, and their new director spent a week "in the pines" getting acquainted and preparing for the 67-68 year. Band camp found some unusual articles lying around the rehearsal hall and directors cabin. The inevitable time came when new members were recognized and their talents enjoyed by the old Dukes. By the end of the week the director was able to walk by the pool without "falling" in. The band could have used more time practicing their "march in the creek" maneuver, but time had arrived to break camp. On the trip home there was sharing of memories, questions of where to go next year, and how —how much farther to Dublin (civilization)!!!

In a remodeled home of new paint and one less wall, the Duke band president, Ron Hines and members of the executive council planned the years' activities.

Before all were settled down to books and study, the band traveled to Covington for its annual appearance in the Labor Day Parade.

September meant a heavy schedule of football games and parades. Annual participation in the Southeastern Band Festival at Bristol earned a Division II rating and some very cold band members.

First row—D. Hall, M. Poole, K. Hager, M. Creasy, Second row—R. Olinger, K. Buckland, T. Dillow, N. Morris, D. Graham, S. Hale, R. Fowler, T. Dobyns, Third row—C. Gwynn, D. Williams, M. Dalton, L. Shouse, B. Holmes, D. Jackson, C. Gannaway, L. Burris, S. Allison, J. Davis,

S. Carden, D. Davis, Fourth row—G. Coake, M. Kelly, G. Dalton, A. Ratcliff, P. Reed, M. Smith, D. Shomaker, M. Martin, R. Davis, T. Pack, S. Kelly, B. Burgess, D. Harper, Fifth row—G. Taylor, M. Trail, C. Haynes, S. Akers.

The band extended its community services by attending the Shrine Bowl game for crippled children in Roanoke. The band's escort, a group of "well-dressed young gentlemen," was somehow lost in the hustle and bustle of the days' activities.

The somewhat confused postgame performance at the Duke-Radford game was perfected in time for the victory dance after the Giles defeat. Maybe some of the football players should be added to the majorette squad!

Perhaps the band should acquire some new inventions for next year such as faint-out protection for Rosemary O. and a lock-picker for Debbie H.

Spring activities will find Rosemary Olinger, drum major, Paulette Fowler, head majorette, and majorettes, Dottie McClure, Betty Johnston, Debbie DeVilbiss, and Nancy DeVilbiss leading the band in the Apple Blossom Festival at Winchester.

Through concerts and festivals, the Duke Band will be guided by its seventeen seniors: Mary Wright, Steve Hale, Betty Johnston, Brenda Holmes, Sammy Anderson, James King, Dottie McClure, Pat Phillips, Phil Shultz, Sarah Carden, Peggy Reed, Greg Taylor, Mike Trail, Steve Hester, Ron Hines, James Smith, and Dennis Young. Their loss will be felt, but it is rewarding to know other bandsmen will strive to attain the high ideals and goals as represented by these seventeen young men and women.

C H O R U S

The forty-eight member Dublin High School Senior Chorus is called upon to perform many times throughout the year for both the school and the community. It is a voluntary, non-selective organization in which anyone who wishes may participate.

One of the first functions of the chorus is to sing for the annual Beta Club assembly. This is closely followed by the Thanksgiving service in which the group also performs. These first two appearances not only give the music students a chance to present the songs to the student body but also gives the student body an opportunity to hear the chorus.

One of the major performances of the chorus comes with the arrival of the Christmas Season. After approximately three months of rehearsal, a program of varied music is offered to all, first in a public concert and then in a school assembly. This is one of the highlights of the school year for both the students and the public.

In February of each school year a group of music students are selected to attend the District All-State Chorus which is held in a different area each year. In 1966–67 six students from Dublin High School were selected for this honor. Also, one student was chosen to attend All-Virginia Chorus which is made up of the most outstanding chorus students from the state. With April comes the annual Spring Concert which affords the chorus an opportunity to perform once more for the public. At this time the students are given a chance to sing some of their favorite songs of the past as well as the current hits. This includes both sacred and secular selections of a varied nature.

The final appearance of the chorus is made at the graduation exercises in June. For many of the students it is their final performance with the chorus.

Along with the scheduled appearances of the chorus, there are times when they perform for other groups such as music clubs, churches, and civic organizations.

The chorus for 1967-68 is led by its officers: Carol Hash—Pres.; Joe Woolwine—Vice-Pres.; Nancy Turpin—secretary; Gary Brown—treasurer; and Mary Mabry—student director. Much credit for the successful operation of the chorus goes to Deone Rupard who has been the accompanist for five years.

The Dublin High School Junior Chorus is composed of forty-three eighth and ninth graders. During the year they are always busy preparing for performances at Thanksgiving, Christmas, the Spring Concert and for churches and organizations. Their accompanists are Debbie Duncan and Diane Bays.

Homecoming

Activities . . .

Key Club rates second place in float competition . . .

Beta Club, third place float, suggests taming those "cats". . .

Everyone's attention is focused on Crownbearers Sharon Crews and Patrick Simpson . . .

The Homecoming activities for the year 1967 opened with a bonfire the night before the Homecoming game. Many students attended the bonfire and helped build enthusiasm by taking part in the activities.

First in the float competition was the Senior-Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y with the theme, "Take the Bite Out of the Bobcats." The Key Club won second place with the theme, "The Bobcat Reducer." Winning third place was the Beta Club float with "Mr. Duke Tames the Cat."

Friday night was the high point of Homecoming as the Dukes gained a doubly-sweet victory over their rivals, Radford.

The conclusion of the activities was the Homecoming Dance Saturday night. The theme was "67 NRV Champs?" (which was answered after the last game in the season). Everyone was excited and surprised over the crowning of the queen, Pat Phillips, and the king, Rick Hurst. The rest of the royalty included the prince and princess, Bob Burgess and Sharon Dobbins, and the duke and duchess, Junior Move and Trish Walsh.

At homecoming game, Dukes capture New River District from Radford . . .

Officers . . .

The Senior Class of 1968 has come a long way in the past twelve years . . . they have grown from children to adults . . . changed their ideas and ideals . . . became aware of the treasures life has in store for them.

Since the eighth grade the Class of '68 has had good leadership. This year the able officers are: Oakley Friend, President; Ricky Hurst, Vice President; Carson Dalton, Secretary; Bonnie Meredith, Treasurer; and Mike McLeod, Reporter.

The helpful sponsors include: Mrs. K. Bishop, Mrs. S. Bishop, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Sloop, Mrs. Eller, Miss King, Mr. Quesenberry, and Mr. Johnson.

Many money making activities will keep the Seniors busy this year . . . sponsoring a Senior Dance on December 2 . . . producing a play in the spring . . . sponsoring a Senior-Faculty Basketball game . . . but after the work comes fun . . . the Juniors give the Seniors a banquet in the spring . . . the Prom . . . Dukes Finally Gain District Championship

The football championship title has finally come to rest in the halls of the Dublin Dukes after ten frustrating years in which our Big Dukes were always ever-so-close.

The champions, under fine Senior leadership and tri-captains, Robert Rollins, Bob Burgess, and Rick Hurst, compiled a fine record of 9 wins and one loss.

The Dukes were a dream team with the charm of a watch balance, with break-away Carson Dalton at wing-back, pile driving All-State, Rick Hurst at tailback and quarterback, Junior Moye, 130 lbs. of courage. These combined with All-District end, William Wolford, for an effective passing offense.

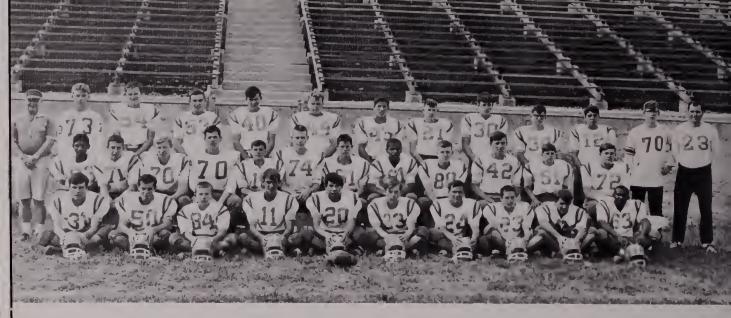

Max Cecil accepts the DISTRICT TROPHY for the Duke team . . .

The Duke Defense gave up an average of only 8 points per game, with the tough good line being scored upon only twice by runs during the season. Full back, Jack Akers, provided the Dukes with superb punting, quick kicks and field goals.

Assistant Coaches Robert Young and Carl Lindstrom welded together a rugged line that could be depended upon to block in the open field.

Dublin Duke fans appreciate the efforts of these men, and the tremendous ability and spirit of head coach Dave Brown.

The story of 1967–68 Varsity Basketball was one of misfortune. The Dukes were hit with the news that their big center, Robert Rollins, who was expected to carry the load this year, was lost for the season because of a gun shot wound in his foot. This news seemed to set the pattern of bad luck. Misfortune, illness, and numerous other reasons (?) caused the loss of key men throughout the season with as many as five or six games missed by several boys during the year.

Although things seemed never to go the Dukes' way, they were not quitters. They gave the fans a good show every time with their hustle and desire.

Throughout the New River District the term used to define the Dublin Dukes was "press and hustle."

To each of the boys on the team the name of the game was "Press."

Although the Dublin team was the smallest in the district, their desire and press made them a threat in every ballgame.

Making up the squad were the following seniors: Bob Burgess, Jerry Owen, Oakley Friend, Mike McLeod, William Wolford, Darrel Shanks, Stanley Crigger, Mike Linkous, and Junior Moye.

The juniors on the squad were: Manous Black, Fred Stanley, Jack Hall, Larry Lawson, Larry Shouse, Richard Lewis, and Cecil Wolford.

Track
At D.H.S. . . .

M. Cecil, S. Crigger, J. Haga, C. Dalton.

The opening track meet was held April 11, 1967 with Blacksburg, Radford, and Narrows. Dublin won, with the impressive score of 65 points to Blacksburg's and Radford's 34 points each, and Narrow's 19 points.

The second track meet was held on April 15, 1967, which marked a first for Dublin, with the beginning of an annual event known as the New River Valley Relays. All of the teams in the district were invited to participate. The teams attending were Pulaski, Giles, Blacksburg, Ft. Chiswell, and Christiansburg. A large trophy was given to the team of the winning school. The proud winner was Dublin, with 51 points; second, Pulaski, 42 points; third, Giles, 28 points; fourth, Ft. Chiswell, 13 points; fifth, Blacksburg, 10 points; and sixth, Christiansburg, 6 points.

The third meet, which was a duel meet between Blacksburg and Dublin, was held on April 20, 1967. The Dublin team won 78 points over Blackburg's 40 points.

Concord College was the site of the fourth meet on April 22, 1967. The meet, known as the Concord Relays, included the strongest teams from West Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, North Carolina, and Virginia. Dublin placed fourth out of 20 teams. The only other teams there from this district were Pulaski and Giles.

The next meet, on April 25, 1967, between Radford and Dublin, was held without the participation of Gary Jones and Sam Porter. Dublin was able to win 68 to 50.

April 27, 1967, proved to be a heart breaking day for Dublin because it was the first defeat in three years. Pulaski with 62 points upset Dublin with 56 points by taking the last event of the meet.

May 1, 1967, was again a happy day because Dublin won the meet with 63 points over Pulaski, 46 points, Galax, 27 points, and Ft. Chiswell, 15 points.

The last regular meet of the track season was May 4, 1967, with Christiansburg. Dublin won 81 to 25.

May 12, 1967 was the day for the District Track Meet at Virginia Tech. To the disappointment of the players, the Dublin Dukes were only able to achieve second place with 30 points. The players who scored were Emmett Hampton, second in the broad jump; Gary Jones, first in the pole vault (a new District record of 11'8"), and fourth in the broad jump; Charles Whittaker, third in the high hurdles; Robert Rollins, first place in high jump; Sam Porter, third in low hurdles; Jerry Haga, first in the 880; David White, second in the 880.

The following boys went to the state track meet at V.M.I.: Gary Jones, Emmett Hampton, Jerry Haga, David White, and Robert Rollins, who placed second in the high jump.

At the end of the season the team voted for the outstanding player award to be given to Sam Porter, who also had the highest number of points for the 1967 track season. Carson Dalton, Charles Whittaker, and Robert Rollins were also in close competition for the highest number of points.

The winning streak started four years ago after many years of consecutive losses and now the track team has a higher percentage of wins than any other athletic team at Dublin. Many members of the '66–'67 track team set new school records.

The Dublin Dukes Baseball Team finished the 1967 season with a record of five wins and five defeats, enabling the team to finish third in the Eastern Division of the New River District. During the '67 season there were several outstanding players on the squad, most of whom will return for the '68 season.

Key players lost because of graduation were George Morgan, a fine pitcher, and Jimmy Hurst the team's leading hitter.

Many returning lettermen are expected to carry the load for the Dukes in the '68 season. Jack Akers should be one of the best pitchers in the district and could give the team a very needed lift in the pitching department. Bob Burgess is a hitter and shortstop. He will also be one of the pitchers. Rick Hurst, the Duke centerfielder, is one of the best in the district and hit better than three-hundred last year. Junior Moye is a slick fielding second baseman and should do his share of the hitting. Marvin Barbre will be the left fielder and will add his potent bat to the Duke offense. With a little hard work the Duke catcher, Jack Hall, could be one of the top catchers in the district. Jack also has the ability to hit for a good average. Other players expected to help the team are Larry Lawson, Joey Jackson, Kenny Hand, Richard Lewis, Scot Quesenberry, Marvin Taylor, Hensil Morris, Lee Morris, Mike Whitworth, Eddie Baker, and Roger Young.

Beta Club

The Beta Club of Dublin High School is a local chapter of the National Beta Club. It was originally set up in 1953 in South Carolina.

The purposes and goals of the club are to promote ideals of honesty, service, and leadership of high school students, to reward meritorious achievement, and to encourage student education on higher levels.

The Beta Club activities are: to award a scholarship of $100 to a worthy senior, to award scholarship letters to juniors, to present a gift to the high school, and to place gold seals on the senior diplomas.

The club has a total membership of 49 members.

Vice President: Bonnie Meredith, President: Sharon Dobbins, Corresponding Secretary: Carolyn Rupe, Recording Secretary: Candy Mady, Chaplain: Robert Countiss, Program Chairman: Lee Smith, Parliamentarian: Robert Copenhaver, Reporter: Tim Marshall.

MAPLE LEAVES STAFF and SPONSORS

WISH TO THANK THOSE WHO HAVE ASSISTED IN THIS 1968 PUBLICATION

All good things must come to an end . . . even as this 25th edition of the Maple Leaves must be closed, so must the school year for 1967–68 be ended . . . This has been a year of some sadness, but a great deal of happiness . . . We have had many new, varied, and exciting experiences . . . It has been a year of constant team spirit, pride in our school, and a fervent determination to succeed . . . The Maple Leaves Staff has endeavored to represent the life at Dublin High School as real and vivid as it has actually been . . . May the future of each student at D. H. S. be happy and filled with wonderful memories of Dublin as you "Try to Remember."
